The Order of the Sons of Pericles

August 2015 Revision, Including all Amendments to Date

Preamble

In order to Perpetuate a Fraternal Organization, Encourage the Principles of Brotherhood, Promote Justice and Fidelity, the Welfare and Happiness of the Membership; to instill a Spirit of American Patriotism; to Stimulate the Love and Admiration of Hellenic Culture, Traditions, and Ideas; and to Promote the Principles and Objectives of the Order of AHEPA, the spiritual mother of this fraternity; this Constitution is Ordained.

Article I

NAME

This Fraternity shall be known as the Order of the Sons of Pericles, the Junior Order of AHEPA. It may be referred to as the Sons of Pericles for short. It may be further designated by Greek letters "Upsilon Pi" (UP).

EMBLEM

The official emblem of the Order of the Sons of Pericles shall consist of a cross whose arms are of equal length over which shall fly the eagle on a background of the rays of the rising sun and above which shall be the bust of Pericles. Beneath the left wing of the eagle shall be the Greek letter Upsilon (U). Beneath the right wing shall be the Greek letter Pi (P). Behind the cross shall be two naked, crossed swords with points directed downward and underneath the cross shall be the designation "Junior Order of AHEPA."

The entire emblem shall be embraced by two olive wreaths.

Article II

AIMS AND OBJECTIVES

(a) To promote and instill the spirit of national patriotism; allegiance to the flag; support to the Constitution; obedience to the laws and reverence for the history and traditions of the United States of America, Canada, the Bahamas, the Commonwealth of Australia and Greece.

(b) To stimulate love and admiration of Hellenic culture, traditions and ideas; to promote throughout the world, and especially the United States and Canada, a better and more comprehensive understanding of the Hellenic people; to encourage the study of Hellenic letters, arts and sciences, and the preservation and teaching of the Hellenic language.

(c) To develop character by promoting, in every manner possible, a high standard of ethics and good fellowship amongst its members. To develop the spirit of human understanding, mutual benevolence, helpfulness and to stimulate and encourage education and to point out to its members the beauties of sacrifice and the deformities of selfishness.

(d) To champion the causes of education, and to make possible for its members the full enjoyment of education facilities.

(e) To further in its memberships the ideals of obedience and respect towards parents and elders.

(f) To prepare its members for admission into the Order of AHEPA and to assist the chapter of AHEPA to carry out the aims and purposes of the Senior Fraternity.

Article III

JURISDICTION

The jurisdiction of the Order of the Sons of Pericles extends over the state, districts, territories and possessions of the United States of America, and over Canada, the Bahamas, the Commonwealth of Australia, and Greece and into any other parts as the Order of AHEPA may extend its own jurisdiction.

Article IV

SECRECY

Section 9:

The Convention Officers are to be elected by the delegates present at the convention as the first order of business and shall consist of the Chairman, Vice-Chairman and Secretary. The Supreme President shall call the Supreme Convention to order and shall preside until the Convention officers are elected and qualified for office.

Section 10:

The members of the National Advisory Board shall attend the deliberations of the Supreme Convention but shall act only in an advisory capacity to such body.

Section 11:

The Convention Chairman, immediately upon the assumption of his duties, shall appoint the following committees:

Grievance and Resolutions
Constitution
Budget
National Project
Athletics
Scholarships
Officer Reports
AHEPA/SOP Relations

The Chairman or the Convention may modify this list in order to expedite the business of the Convention.

Section 12:

The Chairman of the Convention shall appoint, in addition to the committees mentioned in the previous section, and AHEPA/Sons Committee composed of the Supreme Lodge and three additional members appointed by the Chairman or elected by the delegates as each convention shall decide. This committee shall meet with the Sons of Pericles Committee, appointed by the Chairman of the AHEPA Convention, and shall present to said AHEPA Committee a report of the deliberations and any constitutional amendments enacted by the Supreme Convention of the Sons of Pericles.

Section 13:

The host chapter of the Sons of Pericles to the Supreme Convention shall act under the supervision of the Sons of Pericles Supreme Lodge. If there is no Sons of Pericles chapter in the convention city, arrangements for said convention shall be made by the local AHEPA chapter under the supervision of the National Advisory Board and the Supreme Lodge of the Sons of Pericles.

Section 14:

The delegates representing their respective districts at the Supreme Convention shall be reimbursed by their respective District treasuries if funds are available. If in the opinion of the District Advisor, funds are not available or are limited, he can recommend to the AHEPA District Lodge to help defray the expenses of the Sons District Representative to the Supreme Convention. The payment of the money will be contingent upon the delegate's regular attendance at the business sessions and will be verified by the Supreme Lodge upon request.

Section 14a:

A Son of Pericles may not sit as a delegate for his respective Sons Chapter and AHEPA Chapter at the same Convention.

Section 14b:

A Son of Pericles must fulfill his Chapter's delegate obligations before any dual member can become an AHEPA delegate.

Section 15:

Any member of the Sons of Pericles who is in good standing shall have the right to sit in on the deliberations of the Supreme Convention.

Section 16:

Credentials of the delegates to the Convention must be verified by the Supreme Secretary of the Sons and carry the great seal of the Order.

Section 17:

All delegate forms must be submitted to a Supreme Lodge member or Headquarters by the deadline of May 15th and delegates and alternates to be seated at the Convention must fulfill all requirements. The deadline may be extended by the Supreme Lodge for good cause.

Section 17a:

If no report form has been sent or received or postmarked after the deadline, a delegation may be seated by a majority vote of the Convention after the election of the Convention officers.

Section 17b:

Delegates must register by the start of business Wednesday. If there is no business meeting conducted on Wednesday of the Supreme Convention, then it will be the duty of the Supreme Lodge to make themselves available for brothers to register until noon on Wednesday.

Section 18:

The quorum for any session of the Supreme Convention, except the election of Supreme Convention and Supreme Lodge Officers, approval of constitutional amendments, and approval of financial matters, shall be defined as 25% of the delegates registered at the time of the call for a quorum. The quorum is 50% for the excepted items.

Article XI

DISCIPLINE

Section 1:

All grievances against a national officer of the fraternity must be submitted in writing to the National Advisory Board. Its decision shall be final, with the exception of a decision involving expulsion, suspension, or impeachment and removal from the office in which case an appeal may be made to the Supreme Lodge of the Order of AHEPA.

Section 2:

Upon complaint in writing of one-third of the members of any local chapter duly filed with the Chairman of the Local Advisory Board, any elective officer of a chapter may be placed on trial before the Local Advisory Board which shall the conduct a hearing of the charges. The Local Advisory Board will then make a recommendation to the Supreme Lodge as to whether removal and/or other punishment may be required. The District Advisor's recommendation will be subject to approval of the AHEPA District Lodge. The Supreme Lodge shall take the District Advisor's recommendation and conduct a trial. If convicted, the defendant shall be removed from office and/or suffer such other punishments as may be decided by the trial board. In all cases, a two-thirds vote shall be required. Notices of such complaint shall be sent to the defendant at least two weeks prior to his trial. An appeal may be taken to the National Advisory Board, but the decision of the Supreme Lodge must stand until the case is disposed of by the former. The National Advisory Board's decision shall be final.

Section 2a:

In the event the Supreme Lodge imposes a punishment which is greater than the recommendation of the District Advisor, such act will constitute valid grounds for appeal and the Supreme Lodge will have to justify to the National Advisory Board the reason for their decision.

Section 2b:

In the event the District Advisor does not act within 20 days after the filing of the complaint with the Board Secretary, the complaint may be taken directly to the Supreme Lodge upon duly filing a complaint with the Supreme Secretary.

Section 3:

All other grievances within a chapter shall be submitted by a member to the Local Advisory Board for arbitration. Its decisions shall be final, with the exception of a decision involving expulsion, in which case an appeal may be made to the National Advisory Board.

Section 4:

A member who is in arrears for three (3) months shall be permitted within the chapter room, but shall not be allowed to participate in the business of the chapter, nor have the right to vote, nor to receive the password.

Section 5:

A member, when he is six (6) months in arrears, shall be suspended for nonpayment of dues upon thirty (30) days written notice from the Secretary. Suspended members shall not be permitted to participate in Chapter meetings, or any other Chapter or District function.

Section 6:

A suspended member may be reinstated upon either the settlement of all obligations against him, plus a reinstatement fee of $6.00, or by such procedure as the Supreme Lodge at specific times may prescribe. Headquarters shall reinstate a suspended member's application for reinstatement accompanied with the fee of $6.00.

Section 7:

A Local Chapter, with the consent of the Local Advisory Board, shall have the power to suspend members for good and sufficient reasons. Such suspension shall remain in force while the cause therefore exists and the same may be lifted only by a majority vote of the Chapter.

Section 8:

All obligations provided by this Constitution and Bylaws to be performed by the several Chapters shall be discharged by them within three months from the time the same are due. Failure to take proper action to answer the same shall be deemed sufficient grounds for suspension of the Chapter rights of non-conforming chapters.

Section 9:

The National Advisory Board may make further rules and regulations with respect to discipline as are not inconsistent with or contrary to the Constitution and Bylaws of the Fraternity, and which may serve the best interests of the Fraternity.

CHAPTER OFFICERS

Section 1:

The elective officers of each chapter shall be the President, the Vice President, the Secretary and the Treasurer.

Section 2:

At the meeting following the elections, the newly elected president shall announce the appointment of the following appointive officers: Assistant Secretary, Master of Ceremonies, High Guardian, High Priest, Inner Guard, and Sons-AHEPA Liaison.

Section 3:

Chapter officers shall hold a term of one year, commencing in the first regular meeting of the month following the election to said office.

Section 4:

The election of officers shall be held at a time selected by the Sons of Pericles Supreme Convention subject to approval of the Order of AHEPA. It shall be the duty of the Chapter Secretary to notify all members of the day designated for the election of new officers at least ten (10) days in advance of the election. Failure to do so shall be considered sufficient ground to declare an election null and void.

Section 5:

A quorum for the election of officers shall consist of eight members of a chapter, or three-fifths of the membership, whichever is lower, unless otherwise specified by the Supreme Lodge. However, for those chapters having a membership of fifteen members or less, a quorum shall be determined as follows:

|                 |                            |
|-----------------|----------------------------|
| 8 – 9 members   | 5 members must be present, |
| 10 – 11 members | 6 members must be present, |
| 12 – 14 members | 7 members must be present. |

Section 6:

Only members that are in good standing for two months prior to elections, and new members one month prior to elections, shall be eligible to vote for new officers.

Section 7:

A member shall not be qualified for office if he has not been in good standing for nonpayment of dues or any other cause at any time within the period of six months preceding elections. With the exception of new or reactivated chapters in which no one is eligible, a member is not eligible for the office of Chapter President unless he has served in an elective office for at least one year.

Section 8:

No chapter officer, with the exception of the Secretary, may serve in his respective office for more than two terms in succession.

Section 9:

No person shall hold an elective chapter office while holding, at the same time, an elective office in a District or Supreme Lodge, nor hold an elective office in a District and Supreme Lodge concurrently. Before assuming his office in the chapter, it shall be required of him to resign the elective office he holds in the District or Supreme Lodge. Nor shall any member be eligible for the office of President unless he shall have been a member in good standing for the year preceding his election to office.

Section 10:

Candidates shall be nominated from the floor and shall be voted upon by secret ballot. The candidate receiving the majority of the votes cast shall be deemed elected to the office for which he was nominated. The President shall appoint three tellers, who shall call out the names written on the ballots and the score shall be taken down by the Secretary and one of the tellers who shall in turn, announce the results to the chapter. The President shall be entitled to a vote provided that the same is cast before the ballots are counted. At no time shall the President be entitled to two votes. In the case of a tie, the President shall call for additional voting by secret ballot on the same candidates until the tie is broken.

Section 11:

Both elective and appointed officers shall be installed shortly after their election to office, however, they shall assume their duties at the first regular meeting in the month following their election.

Section 12:

In the event of a vacancy occurring in the office of Chapter President, the same shall be filled by the Chapter Vice President. If the vacancy is other than the Chapter President, then the chapter shall elect any qualified member of the chapter who is in good standing to serve the rest of the term.

Section 13:

An officer may be removed from office if he fails to attend the (3) consecutive regular meeting of the Chapter without cause. The officer shall be given a hearing at a regular meeting of his chapter at which time he may offer an explanation of his absence; he may be removed from his office only by a majority decision of the Local Advisory Board if he refuses to appear for the hearing, or appearing, he refuses to explain the cause of his absence or fails to give a valid excuse for his absence.
